

MODERN SLAVERY POLICY

Direct Delivered Produce Limited

The Company is committed to driving out acts of modern day slavery from within its business and its supply chains. The company acknowledges responsibility to the Modern Day Slavery Act 2015 and will ensure transparency within the organisation and with suppliers' goods and service to the organisation.

As part of the company's due diligence process, any supplier approval will seek assurances on modern slavery and human trafficking.

The company will not support or deal with any organisation knowingly involved with slavery or trafficking.

Implementation of the Policy

Overall responsibility for policy implementation and review rests with the Company senior management. However, all employees are required to adhere to and support the implementation of the policy. The Company will inform all existing employees about this policy and their role in the implementation of the policy. They will also give all new employees notice of the policy on induction to the Company.

This policy will be implemented through the development and maintenance of procedures for appraisals and one-to-one meetings, using template forms, and guidance given to both managers and employees on the process.

This Policy was approved & authorised by:

Name: PAUL GRIMSHAW

Position: DIRECTOR

Date: 20/6/17

Signature:

